BY-LAWS

ARTICLE I

NAME OF CLUB

The club shall be known as the Halifax Country Club of South Boston, Virginia.

ARTICLE II

CLUB STOCK AND INDEBTEDNESS TO CLUB

Section 1

The capital stock of the Corporation shall consist of 400 shares of no par value stock. The stock shall be transferable only on the books of the Club and a transfer fee of $50.00 shall be paid the Club upon each and every transfer of stock. If the owner is in default of payment of his dues, the stock shall not be transferred on the books of the Club. The club membership shall be limited to 350 members.

Section 2

The share or shares of stock of any stockholder shall be subject to assessment in the amount of the dues due and assessments owing by such stockholder when delinquent. When the amount of delinquent dues and assessments of any stockholder member shall accumulate to the amount of $275.00 or more, the stock of such delinquent member shall be called in and cancelled and the rights of such delinquent stockholder member shall thereupon cease.

Section 3

When a share of stock is cancelled in accordance with the preceding section, the cancellation shall be accomplished by resolution of the Board of Directors; and upon such cancellation, the share of stock shall then belong to the Corporation as treasury stock which may be disposed of as the Board of Directors may direct.

Section 4

The ownership of a share of stock in the Corporation shall not in and of itself entitle the holder thereof to the use of the facilities of the Club; and neither a stockholder of the Corporation nor his family shall be entitled to use, or enjoy any of the privileges of, the Corporation's club house, golf course, swimming pool, tennis courts, or any of the Corporation's property or facilities unless and until such stockholder shall be approved and elected to membership by the Membership Committee hereinafter provided for.

Section 5

The minimum price of a share of stock in the Halifax Country Club shall be $500.00 except as hereinafter provided for.

Section 6

Dues obligations of members transferring or selling stock;

- A. If a member moves out of Halifax County, he may turn his share of stock in to the Secretary-Treasurer of the Club. Upon his doing so, all of his privileges in the Club shall cease and his obligation to pay dues shall cease.
- B. If a member wishes to sell his share of stock, but is not moving from the county, his dues commitment would continue until the share is sold.

Section 7

- A. A member may sell or otherwise transfer his or her share of stock to another member of his family. Such member must be direct lineage; that is son, daughter, grandson, granddaughter, mother, father, etc. Transfer must be accomplished only through the Secretary-Treasurer and the transfer fee paid to the Club. This transfer to be subject to the approval of the Membership Committee.
- B. In the event of the death of a member, his estate would be entitled to the privileges of A., above, if so desired.

Section 8

If a member wishes to sell his stock, it may be sold under the following conditions:

The member shall notify the Treasurer of his intent to sell his stock. The Club will pay the seller a price of $500.00 for his stock; less any indebtedness that member may have to the Club. This transaction will occur only when there exists a buyer for that stock who qualifies under Article II, Section 4 to become a member with the privileges pertaining thereto.

Section 9

In the event of a divorce, stock shall be awarded to one member as part of the divorce settlement. The divorcee not awarded the stock may purchase stock from the Club if available and without payment of the initiation fee and without need to reapply for membership, as described in Article X. Intent of such shall be made known to the Treasurer within 90 days of the divorce settlement

ARTICLE III

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 1

The government and management of the affairs of the Club shall be vested in a Board of twelve directors consisting of the President, Vice-President, Secretary, and nine directors, who shall be stockholders or spouses. The President, Vice-President, and Secretary shall hold office for a term of one year, but they may succeed themselves in office. Each of the nine additional directors shall hold office for a complete term of three years, but the terms of office of these directors shall be staggered so that at any given time three of these directors will be serving the third year of their terms, three will be serving the second year of their terms, and three will be serving the first year of their terms, and so that only three new directors will be elected each year to replace the three whose terms will then be completed. The three outgoing directors may not succeed themselves but may be elected for another term after one year elapses from the time of their retirement from the Board. In the event that no successors are elected to replace the three directors whose terms are expiring, the entire Board shall serve until the successors of these three directors are elected, the system of rotation shall begin anew in the same manner and in the same order of rotation as if said successors had been elected at the time of the expiration of the terms of these three directors.

Section 2

The Board of Directors shall have power by a majority vote to make and amend bylaws and house, ground or such other rules as may be necessary for the proper management of the affairs of the Club. The Board shall have power to fix penalties for violation of by-laws, rules and regulations, and shall also have power to remit penalties for such violations.

Section 3

The Board shall have the power to make leases and other contracts, elect members of the Club and do other acts or things not inconsistent with the Charter as may be deemed necessary for the welfare of the Club.

Section 4

The Board shall have the power to hire and fire all employees of the Club and to fix the wages and salaries of all employees and the salary of the Secretary-Treasurer of the club.

Section 5

In case of vacancy in the Board of Directors, or any of the officers of the Club, the Board shall elect a successor to fill the unexpired term.

ARTICLE IV

MEETINGS

Section 1

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Club shall be held in January or February at such time and place as may be designated by the Board. At each annual meeting the President, Vice-President, and the Secretary-Treasurer and successors of the three retiring members of the Board of Directors shall be elected.

Section 2

The annual meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held within thirty (30) days after the annual meeting of the stockholders at the call of the President.

Section 3

Regular meetings of the Board shall be called by the President at such time and place as may be designated by the President or as described under Article IV, Section 4.

Section 4

Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President, Vice-President, or by any three members of the Board. Notice of regular or special meetings of the Board may be by letter, telephone or personal notification at least twenty-four hours in advance of holding any regular or special meeting, or without notice, by consent of all Directors or by the presence of all the Directors at such meetings.

Section 5

The Board of Directors may, upon their own motion, or shall upon the written request of ten (10) stockholders of the Club, call a special meeting of the stockholders by giving ten (10) days notice by mail to the last known Post Office address of each stockholder and by posting such notice on the bulletin board of the Club. The notice of every special meeting shall state the object or objects for which it is called and no other business shall come before such meeting.

Section 6

One fourth (1/4) of the stockholders of record or their spouses as of December 31 of each calendar year who are not in default in the payment of dues, either in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum at all corporate meetings of the Club, and a majority of those present either in person or by proxy, shall decide any question presented for decision.

Section 7

Each stockholder of the Club or their spouse, who is not in default in the payment of his dues to the Club, as provided in Article XIII hereof, shall be entitled to one vote at all corporate meetings of the Club.

Section 8

A stockholder may be represented at any corporate meeting by proxy, which must be in writing, and shall be filed with the Secretary of the meeting.

Section 9

Six of the Board members, either in person or by proxy, shall constitute a quorum of the Board of Directors, and a majority of the Board members present shall decide any question presented for decision except a question involving a change in the by-laws, which must be decided by an affirmative vote of a majority.

ARTICLE V

NOMINATING COMMITTEE

At least ten (10) days prior to the annual meeting of the stockholders, the Board of Directors shall appoint a nominating committee composed of three stockholder members. At the annual meeting, this committee shall nominate at least one for each of the offices of President, Vice-President, and Secretary-Treasurer, and they shall also nominate successors for the three retiring directors. The nominees of this committee, along with any other nominees who may be named from the floor, shall be voted upon at the annual meeting to determine the officers and directors of the corporation for the ensuing year in accordance with Article III, Section 1 of these by-laws. All officers and directors must be stockholders or their spouses.

ARTICLE VI

CLUB YEAR

The Fiscal Year of the Club shall begin on the 1st of January and end on the 31st of December.

ARTICLE VII

PRESIDING OFFICER

The President, Vice-President, or in their absence a designated director shall preside at all meetings of the Club, and shall exercise general supervision and control over the affairs of the Club.

ARTICLE VIII

SECRETARY-TREASURER

The Secretary shall keep the minutes of the Club and of the Board of Directors, and shall have charge of the records of the Club. He shall give notice of all meetings of the Club to all members thereof; he shall conduct the general correspondence of the Club and shall report all nominations for membership to the Membership Committee. He, or his designated representative, shall have charge of all monies of the Club and shall keep the accounts of the Club and report thereon to the Board of Directors whenever called upon to do so by the Board. By check he, or his designated representative, shall pay all bills and accounts against the Club when properly certified by the proper authorities.

ARTICLE IX

STOCKHOLDERS AND NON-STOCKHOLDERS

Section 1

The members of the Club shall be stockholders and non-stockholders as hereinafter provided for.

Section 2

Stockholder members shall be those who own in their own right one or more shares of the corporate stock of the Club and have been duly approved and elected members by the Membership Committee. Stockholder members enjoy all of the privileges of the Club including the right to vote on the officers and directors and policies of the Club.

Non-stockholding members shall be those who do not own in their own right one or more shares of the corporate stock of the Club, but have been duly approved and elected members by the Membership Committee. Non-stockholder members enjoy all of the privileges of the Club excluding the right to vote.

Section 3

Stockholding and non-stockholding members of the Club shall pay dues and assessment as fixed by the Board of Directors.

Should a stockholder or a member of his or her immediate family acquire additional shares of stock through marriage, or inheritance, dues and assessments are not applicable to the additional shares. The shareholder may also have the option of disposing of the additional shares as provided for in Article II, Section 7.

ARTICLE X

MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

Section 1

Application for membership in the Club shall be made in writing and in duplicate on blanks furnished by the Club for that purpose. Such application shall be signed by the applicant and endorsed by two or more proposers, who are stockholder members, and turned over to the Secretary.

Section 2

Upon receiving an application for membership, the Secretary shall post the name of the applicant on the club bulletin board and turn one copy of the same over to the Membership Committee, and the Membership Committee shall investigate the applicant and notify the Secretary whether the application has been approved or rejected.

Section 3

If any application is rejected by the Membership Committee, the Secretary shall write the word "Rejected" and the date on the copy of the application retained in his files, and the applicant shall be notified by the Secretary, on a form prepared for the purpose, that his application has been rejected.

Section 4

When an applicant is approved by the Membership Committee and a vacancy exists in membership, the Secretary shall immediately notify the applicant of this election to membership; and, upon payment by the applicant of the transfer fee and his current dues in advance, the Secretary shall deliver to him a proper Certificate of Membership, approved by the Board of Directors, and the applicant shall then be a member in good standing with all of the privileges afforded his membership. If the applicant fails to accept his membership and pay his current dues in advance within thirty days (30) after being notified of his election to membership by the Secretary, his name shall be placed on the waiting list referred to in Section 6 of this Article of these By-Laws.

Section 5

When an applicant is approved by the Membership Committee and there is not stock available, he shall be informed by the Secretary that he has been approved and that as soon as a vacancy occurs, he will be notified. His name is then placed by the Secretary at the bottom of the waiting list referred to in Section 6 of this Article of these By-Laws.

Section 6

The Secretary shall keep a waiting list for membership on which shall be listed the names of the approved applicants who have been unable to become members because no vacancy exists. The names on the list shall be kept in the order of the dates of their approval by the Membership Committee. Whenever a vacancy occurs, the person whose name appears at the top of the list shall be notified by the Secretary that he is eligible to become a member. If this person refuses membership, the person whose name next appears on the list shall be offered the membership and so on until one of the persons whose name is on the list accepts the membership. The membership of the person who accepts the membership shall then be processed in accordance with Section 4 of this Article of these By-Laws. Any person whose name appears at the top of the list and is offered a membership must accept the membership within 30 days or his name shall be placed at the bottom of the list by the Secretary, and the membership shall be offered to the person whose name next appears on the list.

ARTICLE XI

CONDUCT OF MEMBERS

Section 1

In the event of any infraction of any by-law, or any rule of the Club, or any conduct on the part of a member which may endanger the good order, welfare or character of the Club, a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors may suspend such member from all privileges of membership for a period of not more than six months; provided, that when any member charged with any breach or infraction of the rules or by-laws of the Club, notice in writing shall be given him, setting forth the charge and setting the date of a meeting at which time the charge shall be heard, and he shall be given an opportunity to defend himself.

Section 2

In the event of any infraction of any by-law, or rule of the Club, or any conduct on the part of a member which may endanger the good order, welfare or character of the Club, such member may be expelled by a two-thirds vote of the Board of Directors, provided that 10 days notice in writing shall be given the offending member, and each member of the Board, of the meeting at which such expulsion shall be considered; any member so charged with misconduct shall have an opportunity of defending himself, either in person or by representative, at the meeting of the Board when the charges against him shall be considered.

Section 3

For misconduct or neglect of duty, any officer or member of the Board of Directors may be expelled from office by a majority vote of a quorum of the stockholders of the Club at a special meeting called for that purpose.
