Let's kick off the weekend by having Alex Lawhon play acoustic music poolside. Biography below on Alex. Sit back and relax and listen to the tunes. The pool area will be decorated in a "nautical" theme so dress to match if you wish!

Hope to see you there!

Alex is a songwriter and lead singer of the matchless rock outfit The Roman Spring (his words). He's toured with Maroon 5 on their way to super-stardom and played shows with the likes of Jet, Gavin Degraw, John Mayer, Evan Dando, Train, Michelle Branch, Sara Bareilles, Third Eye Blind, Cracker and Natasha Bedingfield to name(drop) a few... With the band "Colourslide" Alex has had the privilege to grace the (back) cover of Billboard and be named by Gretsch guitars as the best unsigned band in the country (or world maybe). His music has also earned many national television spots on ESPN, MTV, ABC Family, E! and OXYGEN. Alex and Colourslide re- released a special edition of their second record "Everybody's Right about Everybody". Find it on Spotify, Pandora and iTunes...it was recorded by the fab Ted Comerford, mastered by the unequalled Bob Ludwig and mixed entirely by the legendary Jack Joseph Puig at Ocean Way Studios in Hollywood, CA.

The Roman Spring have just finished their debut EP and are aiming for an early fall release. The record was recorded in Durham, NC with Ryan Pickett (My Morning Jacket, Chatham County Line) and John Plymale (Superchunk).

When not rolling and/or rocking I can be found behind my desk at Port Merchandise in Raleigh where I work with two amazing guys and have the privilege to work with amazing artists such as Jason Isbell, Lucinda Williams, Nada Surf, Langhorne Slim, Lake Street Dive, Bonnie Raitt, St. Paul and The Broken Bones, Josh Rouse and Wye Oak (to name a few)...
